COMPLAINT FOR COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT

Plaintiff LHF Productions, Inc., by and through its attorneys, Jeffrey R. Schmieler and Saunders & Schmieler, P.C., files this Complaint and states:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. In this action, LHF Productions, Inc. seeks damages and injunctive relief under the Copyright Act, alleging that each defendant is liable for: (1) direct copyright infringement in violation of 17 U.S.C. §§ 106 and 501; and (2) contributory copyright infringement. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 17 U.S.C. §§ 101, et seq., 28 U.S.C. § 1331, and 28 U.S.C. § 1338.

2. Does 1-14 reside in and/or do business in Maryland, and their acts of copyright infringement were committed with knowledge that they would cause injury in Maryland. This Court may exercise personal jurisdiction over each of the defendants.

3. Venue is proper in this District and division under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) and (c): (i) at least a substantial part of the acts giving rise to this action were committed in this District and division; (ii) all, or at least a majority of the defendants reside and can be found in Maryland.

Venue is also proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1400(a) because all or a majority of the defendants or the defendants' agents reside or may be found in Maryland.

PARTIES

4. LHF Productions, Inc. is a corporation organized in the State of Nevada. It owns the copyright to the mainstream motion picture, London Has Fallen. That film stars Gerard Butler, Aaron Eckhart, and Morgan Freeman.

5. LHF Productions has sued Defendants Doe 1-14 using fictitious names because LHF productions does not know their true names or capacities—whether individual, corporate, associate, or otherwise. Each defendant is known to LHF Productions only by an Internet Protocol address (“IP address”), which is a number assigned by an Internet Services Provider (“ISP”) to devices, such as computers, that are connected to the Internet. An ISP can correlate a defendant’s IP address to a defendant’s true identity. As shown on Exhibit 1 to this Complaint, each of the defendants’ acts of copyright infringement and contributory copyright infringement occurred using an IP address traced to a physical address located within this District. LHF Productions intends to subpoena the ISPs that assigned the defendants’ IP addresses in order to learn the identity of the account holders for the IP addresses. Often, the account holder will be a proper defendant in this case. Further discovery, however, may be necessary in some circumstances in order to be certain of the proper defendant’s identity. LHF Productions believes that it will learn the true names for each defendant through discovery, which will allow LHF Productions to amend this Complaint to include each defendant’s true name. LHF Productions also believes that discovery will lead to the identification of additional persons who have infringed and contributed to the infringement of its copyright, and those persons may be added to this action as additional defendants. LHF Productions will amend this Complaint to include the proper names and capacities of the defendants and additional defendants when it learns that information. Upon LHF Productions' information and belief, each of the defendants participated in and is responsible for the acts described in this Complaint and the damages resulting from those acts.

6. Upon LHF Productions' information and belief, each of the defendants performed, participated in, or abetted the acts, proximately caused LHF Productions' damages, and is liable to LHF Productions for the damages and relief sought in this Complaint.

7. Joinder of the defendants is proper under Fed. R. Civ. P. 20(a)(2). Each defendant is jointly and severally liable for the infringing activities of the other defendants because each defendant contributed to the other defendants' infringement of LHF Productions' copyright. The acts of infringement and contributory infringement alleged in this Complaint were part of a series of transactions over the course of a short period of time on May 1, 2016, involving the exact same piece of LHF Productions' copyrighted work. The acts of infringement and contributory infringement were performed by the defendants acting in concert with one another. There are common questions of law and fact.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

A. LHF Productions owns the copyright to the mainstream motion picture work, *London Has Fallen

8. LHF Productions owns the copyright to the work London Has Fallen, a mainstream motion picture, starring Gerard Butler, Aaron Eckhart, and Morgan Freeman, completed in 2015 and first published and theatrically released on March 4, 2016. The work has been registered with the United States Copyright Office since March 14, 2016, under registration number PA 1-982-831.

B. The defendants used BitTorrent to infringe LHF Productions' copyright

9. BitTorrent is one of the most common peer-to-peer file sharing protocols (i.e., a set of computer rules) used for distributing large amounts of data quickly.

10. BitTorrent is popular because the protocol allows distribution of a large file without creating a heavy load on the source computer and network. Instead of downloading a file from a single source computer (i.e., one computer directly connected to another computer), the BitTorrent protocol allows users to join a “swarm” of host computers to download and upload from each other simultaneously. In such a swarm, each computer is connected to numerous computers, downloading pieces of the file from them and uploading pieces of the file to them.

1. Each defendant installed a BitTorrent client onto his computer

11. A BitTorrent “client” is a software program that implements the BitTorrent protocol. Numerous such client programs exist, and they may be downloaded directly from the Internet.

12. Once installed on a computer, the BitTorrent client serves as the user’s interface during the process of uploading and downloading data using the BitTorrent protocol.

13. Each defendant installed a BitTorrent client on his computer.

2. The initial seed, torrent, hash, and tracker

14. A BitTorrent user that wants to upload a new file, known as an “initial seeder,” starts by creating a “torrent” descriptor file using the client he installed onto his computer.

15. The client then takes the target computer file, the “initial seed”—in this case London Has Fallen—and divides it into identically sized groups of bits known as “pieces.”

16. The client then gives each one of the computer file's pieces—in this case, pieces of London Has Fallen—a random and unique alphanumeric identifier known as a “hash” and records these hash identifiers in the torrent file.

17. When another peer later receives a particular piece, the hash identifier for that piece is compared to the hash identifier recorded in the torrent file for that piece to test that the piece is error-free. In this way, the hash identifier works like an electronic fingerprint to identify the source and origin of the piece and that the piece is authentic and uncorrupted.

18. Torrent files also have an “announce” section, which specifies the URL (Uniform Resource locator) of a “tracker,” and an “info” section, containing (suggested) names for the files, their lengths, the piece length used, and the hash identifier for each piece, all of which are used by clients on peer computers to verify the integrity of the data they receive.

19. The “tracker” is a computer or set of computers that a torrent file specifies and to which the torrent file provides peers with the URL address(es).

20. The tracker computer or computers direct a peer user's computer to other peer users' computers that have particular pieces of the file—in this case London Has Fallen—on them and facilitates the exchange of data among the computers.

21. Depending on the BitTorrent client, a tracker can either be a dedicated computer (centralized tracking) or each peer can act as a tracker (decentralized tracking).

3. Torrent sites

22. “Torrent sites” are websites that index torrent files that are currently available for copying and distribution using the BitTorrent protocol. There are numerous torrent websites.

23. Upon information and belief, each defendant went to a torrent site to upload and download London Has Fallen.

4. Uploading and downloading a work through a BitTorrent swarm

24. Once an initial seeder has created a torrent and uploaded it onto one or more torrent sites, other peers then begin to download and upload the computer file to which the torrent is linked—in this case, London Has Fallen—using the BitTorrent protocol and the BitTorrent client that each peer has installed on his computer.

25. The BitTorrent protocol causes the initial seed’s computer to send different pieces of the computer file—London Has Fallen—to the peers seeking to download the computer file.

26. Once a peer receives a piece of the computer file, that peer then starts transmitting that piece to other peers. All of the peers and seeders work together in what is called a “swarm.”

27. In this case, each defendant peer member participated in the same swarm, directly interacting with other members of that swarm, and received and transmitted pieces of London Has Fallen among the other members of the swarm.

28. Once a peer has downloaded the entire file, the BitTorrent client reassembles the pieces and the peer is able to view the movie. And once a peer has downloaded the full file, the peer becomes an “additional seed,” continuing to distribute the torrent file, in this case London Has Fallen.

5. LHF Productions’ computer investigators identified each of the defendants’ IP addresses as participants in a swarm that was distributing *London Has Fallen

29. LHF Productions retained Maverickeye UG, a digital forensic investigation service, to identify the IP addresses belonging to those persons using the BitTorrent protocol to infringe its copyright in London Has Fallen.

30. Maverickeye uses forensic software to scan peer-to-peer networks for infringing transactions.

31. Maverickeye extracted the data produced by its investigation, reviewed evidence logs, and isolated the transactions and IP addresses associated therewith for files identified by a specific hash value. In this case, Maverickeye isolated transactions and IP addresses for the files identified by the SHA-1 hash value of:

32. The IP addresses, unique hash number, and hit dates contained on Exhibit 1 accurately reflect what is contained in the evidence logs, and show that: (a) each defendant copied a piece of London Has Fallen, identified by the unique hash number; and, therefore, (2) each defendant took part in the same series of transactions through which he downloaded London Has Fallen and simultaneously transmitted London Has Fallen to other peers.

33. For each of the transactions, each defendant’s computer used its identified IP address to connect to the investigative server from a computer in this District in order to transmit a full copy, or a portion thereof, of a digital media file identified by the unique hash number.

34. Maverickeye analyzed each BitTorrent piece distributed by each IP address listed on Exhibit 1 and verified that reassembling the pieces using a BitTorrent client results in a fully playable digital copy of London Has Fallen.

35. Maverickeye viewed London Has Fallen side by side with the digital media file that correlates to the unique hash number and determined that they were identical, strikingly similar, or substantially similar.

36. LHF Productions has retained counsel to represent it in this matter and is obligated to pay its attorneys a reasonable fee for their services. All conditions precedent to bringing this action have occurred or been waived.

COUNT I – DIRECT INFRINGEMENT

37. In Count I, LHF Productions adopts the allegations in paragraphs 1-36 by reference.

38. LHF Productions owns the copyright for London Has Fallen.

39. By using the BitTorrent protocol, a BitTorrent client, and the processes described above, each defendant copied London Has Fallen.

40. LHF Productions did not authorize, permit, or consent to the defendants' copying, reproducing, redistributing, performing, or displaying London Has Fallen.

41. Each defendant infringed LHF Productions' exclusive rights to:

(a) reproduce London Has Fallen in copies, in violation of 17 U.S.C. §§ 106(1) and 501;

(b) redistribute copies of London Has Fallen to the public by sale or transfer of ownership, or by rental, lease, or lending, in violation of 17 U.S.C. §§ 106(3) and 501;

(c) perform London Has Fallen by showing the work's images, in violation of 17 U.S.C. §§ 106(4) and 501; and

(d) display London Has Fallen by showing individual images of the work non-sequentially and transmitting the display of the work by means of a device or process to members of the public capable of receiving the display, in violation of 17 U.S.C. §§ 106(5) and 501.

42. The defendants' acts of infringement were willful. Each defendant knew London Has Fallen is a copyrighted work, or at least committed his act of infringement with reckless disregard for the LHF Productions' rights. Each defendant illicitly downloaded London Has Fallen for the express purpose of obtaining, for free, an illegal copy of the work, which the defendant would otherwise be required to pay for.

43. By engaging in the acts of infringement alleged in this Complaint, the defendants deprived LHF Productions of income that would have been derived when London Has Fallen was shown in public theaters and offered for sale or rental. The defendants' infringing conduct also diminished the income of all persons involved in the production and marketing of London Has Fallen, including the owners and employees of local theaters and retail outlets in Maryland.

44. LHF Productions has suffered damages proximately caused by the defendants' acts of copyright infringement, including, without limitation, lost sales and income, price erosion, and a diminution in the value of LHF Productions' copyright in London Has Fallen.

WHEREFORE, LHF Productions requests that the Court:

(A) permanently enjoin each defendant from continuing to infringe LHF Productions' copyright in London Has Fallen under 17 U.S.C. § 502;

(B) order that each defendant delete and permanently remove the torrent file(s) relating to LHF Productions' copyrighted work from each computer or other electronic device within each defendant's possession, custody, or control under 17 U.S.C. § 502;

(C) order that each defendant delete and permanently remove all copies of London Has Fallen from each computer or other electronic device within each defendant's possession, custody, or control under 17 U.S.C. § 502;

(D) award LHF Productions the greater dollar amount of either: (1) its actual damages plus any additional profits received by each defendant under 17 U.S.C. § 504(b); or (2) statutory damages of $150,000 per defendant under 17 U.S.C. § 504(c);

(E) award LHF Productions its reasonable attorneys' fees and costs under 17 U.S.C. § 505; and

(F) grant LHF Productions other and further relief that the Court deems just and proper.

COUNT II – CONTRIBUTORY INFRINGEMENT

45. In Count II, LHF Productions adopts the allegations in paragraphs 1-44 by reference.

46. By participating in the BitTorrent Swarm with the other defendants, each defendant induced, caused, or materially contributed to the infringing conduct of each other defendant.

47. LHF Productions did not authorize, permit, or consent to any defendant inducing, causing, or materially contributing to any of the other defendants' infringing conduct.

48. Each defendant had actual or constructive knowledge that the other BitTorrent users in the swarm were directly infringing LHF Productions' copyright in London Has Fallen by copying constituent elements of the work from the defendant's computer. Each defendant directly participated and materially contributed to each other defendants' infringement of the copyright, and each defendant did so willfully.

49. By engaging in the acts of contributory infringement alleged in this Complaint, the defendants deprived LHF Productions of income that would have been derived when London Has Fallen was shown in public theaters and offered for sale or rental. The defendants' acts of contributory infringement also diminished the income of all persons involved in the production and marketing of London Has Fallen, including the owners and employees of local theaters and retail outlets in Maryland.

50. LHF Productions has suffered damages proximately caused by the defendants' acts of contributory infringement, including, without limitation, lost sales and income, price erosion, and a diminution in the value of LHF Productions' copyright in London Has Fallen.

WHEREFORE, LHF Productions requests that the Court:

(A) permanently enjoin each defendant from continuing to infringe LHF Productions' copyright in London Has Fallen under 17 U.S.C. § 502;

(B) order that each defendant delete and permanently remove the torrent file(s) relating to LHF Productions' copyrighted work from each computer or other electronic device within each defendant's possession, custody, or control under 17 U.S.C. § 502;

(C) order that each defendant delete and permanently remove all copies of London Has Fallen from each computer or other electronic device within each defendant's possession, custody, or control under 17 U.S.C. § 502;

(D) award LHF Productions the greater dollar amount of either: (1) its actual damages plus any additional profits received by each defendant under 17 U.S.C. § 504(b); or (2) statutory damages of $150,000 per defendant under 17 U.S.C. § 504(c);

(E) award LHF Productions its reasonable attorneys' fees and costs under 17 U.S.C. § 505; and

(F) grant LHF Productions other and further relief that the Court deems just and proper.
